

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

As the Head of the Civil Engineering Department at GD Goenka University, Gurgaon, I am delighted to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Bashir Sidi Yakubu, an undergraduate student of this department. I have known him for years now, and hence I can confidently discuss his skills and qualities.

I had the pleasure of teaching Bashir across three courses: Disaster Management, Geotechnical Engineering, and Hydraulics Engineering. Among all the undergraduate students I have worked with, Bashir is among the best, demonstrating exceptional intellectual curiosity and enthusiasm. Throughout his studies, Bashir has consistently displayed exceptional dedication and skill. His strong work ethic and attention to detail have been evident in his academic endeavors, consistently excelling in civil engineering. Additionally, his excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, have been invaluable in his academic achievements.

I am confident that Bashir will continue to thrive in his civil engineering career. Bashir's commitment to excellence and passion for civil engineering make him an asset to any team or project. Therefore, I wholeheartedly endorse him for any opportunities that may arise in the field.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Sudipta K. Mishra (PhD-University of Iowa USA)

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Bashir sidi Yakubu, a student whom I have had the honor of teaching for three years in the Civil Engineering Department at GD Goenka University.

During Bashir's duration in the B Tech Civil Engineering program, I had the opportunity to instruct him in several courses, including Design of Concrete Structures, Principle Management, and Computer Aided Design and Detailing. Throughout these courses, Bashir consistently demonstrated an exceptional aptitude for understanding complex engineering concepts and applying them effectively.

One of Bashir's most notable qualities is his unwavering dedication to his studies. He approaches every task with a strong work ethic and meticulous attention to detail, which has consistently translated into outstanding academic performance. Furthermore, Bashir exhibits excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, which have undoubtedly contributed to his success in collaborative projects and presentations.

As Bashir progresses in his academic and professional journey, I have no doubt that his passion for civil engineering, coupled with his exceptional skills and dedication, will enable him to excel in any endeavor he pursues. Therefore, I wholeheartedly endorse him for any opportunities that may arise in the field of civil engineering.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information regarding Bashir's academic performance and character.

Sincerely,
Dr. Manish Kumar,
Assistant Professor,
Department of Civil Engineering,
